Debtor in Pro Per

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
Central District of California

In re GARY FRANCO,
Debtor

Case No.: 6:14-bk-14325-WJ

GARY FRANCO,
Plaintiff

Chapter 7

v.

SALLIE MAE
Defendant

Adversary Pro. No.:

COMPLAINT TO DETERMINE
DISCHARGEABILITY OF STUDENT LOAN

Complaint to Determine Dischargeability of Student Loan

COMES NOW, GARY FRANCO, ("Plaintiff") in Pro Se for his complaint against SALLIE MAE ("Defendant") and alleges as follows:

1. The Debtor filed this case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code on April 3, 2014. This Court thus has jurisdiction over this action under 28 U.S.C. § 1334. This proceeding is a core proceeding.

2. One of the unsecured debts owing by the Debtor and listed in Schedule F is a student loan owing to Defendant Sallie Mae.

3. The Defendant PAUL G. CHILD is the executive director of the SALLIE MAE and is responsible for the overall operation of the guaranteed student loan program.

1 4. This loan was incurred to pay expenses at ITT TECHNICAL SCHOOL.

2 5. Subsequent to beginning coursework at that school, the Debtor learned that the school did
3 not offer job placement. Debtor failed to receive any assistance in job placement and has since been 4 without any luck in locating a job to implement his studies.

5 6. The Debtor was unable to transfer to any other educational program, and was also refused
6 any refund of the tuition paid by the student loan.

7 7. Since that time, the Debtor has been unemployed in the field he received education within,
8 and the sole source of income for himself, his wife and unborn child has been employment in retail,
9 which barely suffices for the necessities of life.

10 8. The Debtor has no current or anticipated available income or resources with which to pay
11 the aforementioned loan and any payments on that loan could be made only at great hardship to the 12 Debtor and his family.

13 WHEREFORE, the Debtor prays that this Court enter an Order declaring the student loan debt
14 of the Debtor to be dischargeable in this bankruptcy case.

15 Date: July 1, 2014

INSTRUCTIONS

The filing of a bankruptcy case creates an "estate" under the jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court which consists of all of the property of the debtor, wherever that property is located. Because the bankruptcy estate is so extensive and the jurisdiction of the court so broad, there may be lawsuits over the property or property rights of the estate. There also may be lawsuits concerning the debtor's discharge. If such a lawsuit is filed in a bankruptcy court, it is called an adversary proceeding.

A party filing an adversary proceeding must also complete and file Form 104, the Adversary Proceeding Cover Sheet, unless the party files the adversary proceeding electronically through the court's Case Management/Electronic Case Filing system (CM/ECF). (CM/ECF captures the information on Form 104 as part of the filing process.) When completed, the cover sheet summarizes basic information on the adversary proceeding. The clerk of court needs the information to process the adversary proceeding and prepare required statistical reports on court activity.

The cover sheet and the information contained on it do not replace or supplement the filing and service of pleadings or other papers as required by law, the Bankruptcy Rules, or the local rules of court. The cover sheet, which is largely self-explanatory, must be completed by the plaintiff's attorney (or by the plaintiff if the plaintiff is not represented by an attorney). A separate cover sheet must be submitted to the clerk for each complaint filed.

Plaintiffs and Defendants. Give the names of the plaintiffs and defendants exactly as they appear on the complaint.

Attorneys. Give the names and addresses of the attorneys, if known.

Party. Check the most appropriate box in the first column for the plaintiffs and the second column for the defendants.

Demand. Enter the dollar amount being demanded in the complaint.

Signature. This cover sheet must be signed by the attorney of record in the box on the second page of the form. If the plaintiff is represented by a law firm, a member of the firm must sign. If the plaintiff is pro se, that is, not presented by an attorney, the plaintiff must sign.
